“The Untold History of Samuel McDowell”
Sponsored by Boyle Landmark Trust
Monday, October 13th at 6:30 pm
Long before Dr. Ephraim McDowell performed his successful abdominal surgeries, his father Samuel McDowell was helping to form the state of Kentucky. Hear more on this topic and other surprising facts during this fascinating lecture by Tom Ellis. Light refreshments will be served. This event is free and open to the public.

Friends of the Library

Friends events are free and open to the public. An interpreter for the deaf is available upon request by contacting the Library 48-hours in advance at 859-238-7323.

“Iron Baby Angel”
Wednesday, October 8th at 4:30 pm
The Iron Baby Angel: A Novel tells the story of a nine-year-old Chicago boy visiting Danville in 1909. Published by Danville native, Charles R. McDowell in 1954, it received many favorable reviews. Danville citizens enjoyed trying to identify the real-life people who were the book’s fictitious characters.

Gigi Biles will discuss the novel’s characters, the setting, and its direct relationship to Danville. Betsy Wilt will talk about the novel as a literary work.

Fall Film Series: Civil Rights & Race Relations
Thursdays at 7 pm • Running through December 4th
This fall, the FOTL Film Series will concentrate on the themes of civil rights and race relations. This film series is designed to contribute to a better understanding of the struggle for equality which began with the Supreme Court decision of 1964.

Films will be shown in the Community Room at the Library. There will be a brief introduction to each film by Charles Vahlkamp and discussion afterward. Free admission. Call or stop by the Library for a complete listing of the series film selections.
